

From Blacksmith to Dock Master

Member, Alan Lewis, provided this photograph of his grandfather, Sidney John Llewellyn when he was Dock Master. In Number 8 in the series of A People's History: Glanymor & Tyisha, on page 130, a photograph, courtesy of Stephen Rees, featured blacksmiths at Glanmor Foundry in 1905. A younger, Sidney John Llewellyn can be seen in the photograph (below) second from the left.

Dock Master Sidney John Llewellyn, (Centre).

Glanmor Foundry, Llanelli. This photograph of a group of blacksmiths was taken outside the forge around 1905. Front row, 2nd from left: Sidney John Llewellyn of Glanmor Villa, Glanmor Road, grandfather of John Llewellyn Lloyd who worked in the Drawing Office from 1954 until 1961. (Photograph given to Stephen Rees by John Llewellyn Lloyd).